Update: Rita Hosking will be held over to the Spring

We wanted to let everyone know that the links to Brown Paper Tickets are working, at long last, for our events coming up! Click on the buttons below or go to www.brownpapertickets.com and search on: spice box, Amador city, community dinner.)

Rita Hosking Concert. We were too slow and disorganized (Us!) so with Rita & Sean's blessing we are going to reschedule (TBA) for this Spring. They have had a busy concert schedule so rescheduling ahead was great for them (Yeah!).

Feist Wines Sunday 11/12: However, there is good music on Sunday at Feist Wines: 11/12 Corrected Sun 4:00 pm $15 Richie Stearns -- Richie Stearns.

Friday, December 8 the December Community Dinner. There is no change. We are all really excited at getting off this first event.

The dinner at the Amador City Community Hall on Friday, December 8 from 5:00 – 8:00. The dinner is a 2 course family-style affair with optional dessert available (not part of the $24/$22 dinner price). Please bring your own beverage of choice and we will have wine glasses available, plus water. Tickets are also available at Brown Paper tickets. The menu reflects the Autumn season (fresh wild salmon from Oregon waters) but also my opportunity to combine flavor components that boost our immune systems with the darker, colder winter season transitioning. The starter represents Indian fare that is fragrant in spices, not spicy, and soothing. The Dessert will be a festive Ginger-Molasses Spice Cake, gluten-free, with a poached Pear & Vanilla Crème. Yum! And we are planning on an optional cheese plate.

We will be selling Christmas cookie boxes at the dinner and a few additional food related gift options to help get your holiday gift giving under way! (Everything can be placed in the freezer for later enjoyment.)
