Greetings!

Happy Spring everyone! It finally feels like we may be over the cold weather hump? This is the first week we are snow & ice free in a while! Beautiful sunshine, welcome back!

We are changing our next Community Dinner date to Saturday, May 26 when we realized that we would be competing with other community dinners (May kicks off the fundraising dinner season starting with Foothill Conservancy on May 19). While Saturday May 26 is Memorial Day Weekend it appears to be free of other community dinners.

The Spice Box Community dinner is hosted at the Amador City Community Center at 14531 E. School St., Amador City, CA 95601.

We are taking our much-anticipated trip to France in April and will await sending out the menu for the May 26 dinner until we see what has inspired us from the foods we enjoy while on vacation translated into what is in season on May 26. Our menus are locally sourced, organic and simple.

We have enjoyed creating foods for a few Yorba Wines Tasting Room events these past few months and will be participating in the Wildflowers & Wines festivities with tastes paired with their delicious wines on April 8, as well! Lots of information on the Wine on 49 website.

2018 will be a year of “food collaboration” for Spice Box on many levels, and we are very excited and honored by the opportunities to share the quest in bringing delicious (healthy), fun and convivial food venues to this community we all love!

Thanks so much for the continued support! See you in May (or maybe April 8!)
