

Lucy's Spice Box

“A cook's kitchen”

Greetings! I wanted to take the opportunity to thank everyone for all your support over the 4 years of the Spice Box dinner take out! It was such a great opportunity to meet so many wonderful people and really share what makes small communities so vibrant and inviting. We will miss the weekly connection with so many incredible people we now consider friends. But change is good! “One door closes while another Opens!”

We will be back in the kitchen eventually, with new vigor/creative energy that will be shared outside of a takeout box for a change! There's lots of ideas mulling around while we take care of some catering obligations now and in the future. We will keep everyone informed via this email list. Please let us know if you'd rather not receive them as we totally understand!!

This month is sort of the last opportunity to try my cooking for a bit. And support some really wonderful fundraisers.

There are still a few tickets available for the Farms of Amador/Amador Farmers Market fundraiser this Saturday. It is such an amazing venue! Please check out all the information at www.farmsofamador.com. Tickets on sale online until 9PM and then if any left at the “door”. I am having a blast in the kitchen this week, lavishing over a chef's dream bounty of local organic produce from Upcountry Farms, Noceto Farms, & Taylor Farms (Outer Aisle). I am always in awe of Frank Dal Porto's Lamb. Thank-you Frank, Bonnie & Art! The Seafood entrée' on the menu is Pacific Yellowtail & Rock Cod, which is gloriously fresh, wild caught and loving the “Escabeche” preparation. This is a Latin recipe where the fish is grilled, then layered with vegetables in a Sherry-Herb Vinaigrette. Meant to be enjoyed at room temperature in the heat of the summer!

And there will be a quartet playing on a platform over the open pool, overlooking an amazing view! How cool is that! Local sax player Klaudia Promessi and her bay area musician friends (40th Street Quartet) will be an incredible music assemble. So excited!

We will also be participating in a unique fundraiser at BINZ tasting room in Amador City for 2 nights, Friday & Saturday, August 25-26 to help support and build awareness for positive change in the Native America Curriculum in our public schools. There is very limited seating for these 2 evenings so they won't last. This event is not to be missed!

We will see you around town with plans to share a Community Table soon!

In gratitude! Lucy & Bill
